The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of five systems of music. Each system has a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has one flat (Bb). The tempo and style are indicated by the lyrics and the 'ad lib.' instruction. The chords are written above the vocal line. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords that support the melody.
